If disaster strikes, can one of your most valuable assets, your data be rapidly restored? If your back-up data is on-site when disaster occurs, your business is at risk. Yours is not the only business -- experts estimate that computer system downtime due to natural and man-made disasters cost U.S. businesses $800 million per year.

Move Your Data Off-premises: You may already have the vehicle. Our web site hosting plans allow for tens-of-megabytes of data to be safely stored on our servers. Many of our clients already store and transfer large files using their web site space and secure, password protected access. If their web site plus the stored data does not exceed the amount allowed by their hosting plan, there is no extra charge. Added storage space, daily back-ups and ultra-secure storage are available. Please contact us for more information.

Newly Launched Web Sites:

MOKO Network

RP Design Web Services is proud to announce the launch of our newest project: MOKO Network. MOKO stands for Mothers of Kids Overseas, which is the target audience of this web site. The goal of MOKO is to provide a support group for families with children living in a foreign country. Along with personal stories from members of the network, news, and links to related web sites, MOKO Network features a bulletin board where people can post messages for family members, ask questions, etc. Click Here to visit the web site.

La Dolce V Salon

RP Design Web Services has recently launched a new web site for La Dolce V Salon. This salon is located in New Jersey, and it offers many services including facials, manicures and pedicures, professional make-up application, etc. The owner of La Dolce V asked RP Design to expand their corporate image onto the web by creating a site that matches the look of their salon. Of Interest: Are you an average surfer? Whether at home or work, the average Web user in the United States goes online more than once a day but spends less than a minute on each Web page they view. Note: Our web designers make certain your message is delivered in this timeframe.

Please call or E-mail us if you would like to discuss how your web site could better serve your business as well as any topics that you would like to see in the Next Newsletter.

Until then, we thank you for your continued support,

Everyone at RP Design Web Services
